

Press Release

May 12, 2022

The Williamsport Law Firm of Rieders, Travis, Dohrmann, Mowrey, Humphrey & Waters is pleased to announce that Clifford A. Rieders has been recertified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy in civil practice advocacy. The recertification is effective until April 25, 2027. The National Board of Trial Advocacy (NBTA) is devoted to improving the quality of trial advocacy and aiding consumers in their selection of experienced legal representation. The NBTA was the first American Bar Association accredited attorney board certifying agency in the world. As the website of the NBTA notes: “In the medical profession, many hospitals forbid doctors to practice without proof of board certification in their specialty.” The National Board Certification requires an all-day examination and checks as references not only judges before whom the candidate has appeared, but also opposing counsel. The rigorous standards set by the NBTA are met by only a handful of trial lawyers.

Rieders is a cum laude graduate of New York University and Georgetown University Law Center. He is also admitted in the states of Pennsylvania, New York and District of Columbia, as well as many federal courts and the Supreme Court of the United States.

The attorney is a Life Member of the American Law Institute, which publishes commentary and proposed Rules for all 50 states. He is a Past President of the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, now Pennsylvania Association for Justice, and served as President of the Federal Bar Association, Central Pennsylvania Chapter.