

Rieders, Travis, Humphrey, Harris, Waters and Waffenschmidt awards six local high school seniors with $250 scholarships. In the front row, from left are: Heather Palmer, Alyssa Kenyon, Chelsey Sutkins, Elizabeth J. Lorson, Ryan Wyland and Stacia Ryder. In the second row from left are attorneys Gary T. Harris, Jeffrey C. Dohrmann, Clifford A. Rieders, John M. Humphrey and Thomas Waffenschmidt.

Law firm awards scholarships

Six local graduating high school graduates were awarded $250 law scholarships by the Williamsport law firm of Rieders, Travis, Humphrey, Harris, Waters and Waffenschmidt.

Each winner submitted an essay, judged by Dr. G.W. Hawkes, Lycoming College co-director of the creative writing department, about why they wanted to be a lawyer or on an important court decision of their choosing. Each also submitted information about their school, work and civic activities and plan to attend full-time either a two-or four-year college or university.

The scholarships were offered to each public high school in the county, and this year's recipients were: Heather Palmer, Muncy High School; Alyssa Kenyon, South Williamsport Area High School; Chelsey Sutkins, Williamsport Area High School; Elizabeth J. Lorson, Montoursville Area High School; Ryan Wyland, Loyalsock Township High School; and Stacia Ryder, Hughesville Area High School.