

CLIFF RIEDERS PRESENTS ON MEDICAL MALPRACTICE LAW AT SEMINAR 11/3/16 IN PHILADELPHIA PRESENTED BY THE PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATION OF JUSTICE

The 2016 Philadelphia medical malpractice seminar is one of the highlights of the 2016 Pennsylvania Association of Justice seminar series. The seminar featured the best known trial lawyers in Pennsylvania from both the patient and defense side, as well as an important official from the state's Mcare Insurance Fund.

Cliff Rieders, the first speaker, covered the crucial topic of legal developments in the field. Rieders' popular series has been given throughout the Commonwealth. Rieders is recognized as one of the leading authorities on medical and hospital malpractice law in Pennsylvania. He is the author of Pennsylvania Medical Malpractice, a noted publication in the field. Rieders also covers the area of pharmaceutical as well as vitamin and dietary supplement litigation.

Cliff Rieders is a Board Certified Trial Advocate and a member of many courts including the Supreme Court of the United States. The attorney is an honors graduate from New York University and received his Juris Doctor from Georgetown University.

Some of the noteworthy topics covered by Rieders are the growing trend of arbitration and nursing home cases, informed consent, pharmaceutical litigation and the imposition of the statute of limitations in connection with when cases may be brought.

Cliff Rieders practices law in Pennsylvania and is also admitted in the State of New York and District of Columbia.

Rieders is the former law clerk of the Honorable Malcolm Muir and is a life member of the American Law Institute which publishes recommendations for courts and legislature throughout the nation.
