

Press Release

Cliff Rieders Profiled in Fall 2016 ZOA Report

A lengthy and detailed profile of the life and work of Cliff Rieders was recently published by the Zionist Organization of America in its Fall 2016 edition. The article notes the work of Cliff Rieders as a trial lawyer, as well as a teacher and legal writer in connection with a number of practice areas. In particular, the article highlights Rieders' background and work standing up for important causes. Most recently, Cliff Rieders has been active in writing and working on resolutions in legislation to blunt efforts aimed at boycotting, divesting and sanctioning the State of Israel.

Rieders is a Board Certified Trial Advocate, and a life member of the prestigious American Law Institute. Aside from community work, Cliff is also a National Board member of the Zionist Organization of America.