

Press Release

Cliff Rieders, a partner in the law firm of Rieders, Travis, Humphrey, Waters & Dohrmann, Williamsport, Pennsylvania, presented for Celesq Attorneys Ed Center and West LegalEd Center, his well-known and highly regarded program on Medical Malpractice Legal Update in Pennsylvania 2020. Rieders has become a regular speaker for Celesq, which is the educational arm of Thomson Reuters, one of the best-known legal publishers in the world. The program covers not only new case law developments, but also was designed to bring attorneys and healthcare professionals up to date on the last several years of important developments. The question of arbitration and discovery issues is one of the most important areas covered in the seminar. Rieders is a nationally Board-Certified Trial

Lawyer admitted in Pennsylvania, New York and District of Columbia, and numerous federal courts including the United States Supreme Court. The attorney is a New York University Phi Beta Kappa cum laude graduate, Code of Arms Society and graduated from Georgetown University Law Center. Rieders is a Past President of numerous organizations, including the Pennsylvania Association for Justice, formerly the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association. He has received numerous awards and recognition for his legal work, and he is a life member of the American Law Institute, which drafts legal formulations for every state in the union and is relied upon by many other national legal systems as well. Rieders practices in numerous areas of the law.
