

Press Release

Cliff Rieders was reelected to Super Lawyers Pennsylvania and Delaware for 2021. Rieders has been named as a Super Lawyer under the category of “Personal Injury Medical Malpractice: Plaintiff” since the rating system was initiated.

Super Lawyers is a peer-selected system created in order to give information to other lawyers and the public concerning who lawyers themselves consider to be of high standing both in terms of experience, competency and ethics.

Cliff Rieders is a cum laude Phi Beta Kappa Code of Arms graduate of New York University, and graduated from Georgetown University Law Center. Rieders is a former Law Clerk of Federal Judge Malcolm Muir, and has served as President of the Pennsylvania Association of Justice, formerly the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, as well as President of the Federal Bar Association, Central Pennsylvania Chapter. Rieders has received numerous awards and recognitions, and is a Life Member of the American Law Institute which proposes Restatements of the Law utilized by all 50 states. Rieders is admitted in the states of Pennsylvania, New York, District of Columbia, and numerous federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

Rieders is a long-time partner in the Williamsport law firm of Rieders, Travis, Humphrey, Waters & Dohrmann, with its main office in Williamsport, Pennsylvania and legal staff in Philadelphia as well.