

August 26, 2021

Press Release

Cliff Rieders, a partner in the law firm of Rieders, Travis, Humphrey, Waters & Dohrmann, on August 26, 2021, delivered his annual Medical Malpractice Seminar, Update of the Law, for Celesq, the educational provider for Thomson Reuters-Westlaw. Thomson-Reuters is the largest publisher of legal material in the world, and its popular lecture series utilizes the skill and experience of Cliff Rieders frequently.

Rieders is one of the leading authorities on medical malpractice in Pennsylvania, having written the encyclopedic text Medical Malpractice in Pennsylvania, which has been in publication for over 25 years. Rieders is admitted in Pennsylvania, New York, District of Columbia, numerous federal courts, and the Supreme Court of the United States. He is a former Law Clerk to the Honorable Malcolm Muir, United States District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania, one of the best-known federal judges who occupied the position.

Rieders is a Past President of the Pennsylvania Association for Justice, formerly the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, and has received many honors from that organization including the President's recognition, and the Milton D. Rosenberg Award for his work on publications and scholarly articles. Rieders has received the George F. Douglas, Jr., Amicus Curiae Award, and was recipient of the PAJ Service Award.

The attorney is a Past President of the Federal Bar Association, Middle District Chapter, and is a life member of the American Law Institute, having been nominated for that organization by several Court of Appeals Judges.

Rieders practices in a number of fields in addition to medical malpractice, including multi-district pharmaceutical and medical device litigation, serious automobile/truck litigation, and other matters of interest.

Rieders is a member of the National Board of Trial Advocacy, and graduated from New York University cum laude and Georgetown University Law Center.